ECONOMIC RELIEF
Version 4

Most NWFA members are small businesses, and many are impacted by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. NWFA has reviewed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act to gather information that will help eligible members navigate the programs available to them through the Small Business Administration.

Here is what you need to know.

CARES ACT

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act is an emergency economic relief package designed to provide $2 trillion in immediate financial assistance to individuals and businesses. Specific initiatives relevant to small businesses are summarized here.

ECONOMIC INJURY DISASTER LOAN

Low-interest working capital loan available for economic injury resulting from temporary loss of revenue.

Eligibility

Businesses with fewer than 500 employees, including sole proprietors and self-employed individuals.

Amount Available

Up to $2 million.

Items Covered

Operating expenses, including payroll, accounts payable, fixed debt, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred.

Terms

Up to 30 years, at an interest rate of 3.75%. Payments for COVID-19 EIDL loans are deferred for one year.

ECONOMIC INJURY DISASTER LOAN EMERGENCY GRANT

Federal disaster grant to provide quick relief for pending Economic Injury Disaster Loans applications.

Eligibility

Businesses with fewer than 500 employees, including sole proprietors and self-employed individuals.

Amount Available

$10,000.

Items Covered

Operating expenses, including payroll, accounts payable, fixed debt, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred.

Terms

Funds will be available within days of a successful Economic Injury Disaster Loan application. Grants can be awarded even if you do not receive an EIDL loan. Grants do not need to be repaid, even if the loan is not approved; however, if you receive a PPP loan, the $10,000 grant will be subtracted from the forgiveness amount of the PPP loan.
